OUR SOLDIERS WITH THE REBELS.

Names of the Union Prisoners of War Now at

We compile from the New Orleans Picayune of Nov. 2 and 5 the following list of our soldiers now in confinement at that city. They were recently transferred from Rich-mond, and our private advices to the 15th ult. state that they were all in good health at that time, with the ex-seption of J. R. Stout, a member of Company H, New York Twenty-seventh regiment, who on the journey accidentally broke his leg.

COMMODORE TATNALL ATTACKS THE FEDERAL FLEET IN COCKSPUR ROADS.—THE VANNESS IN POSSISSION.

IN COCKSPUR ROADS-THE YANKEES IN POSSESSION OF WARSAW.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.]

SAVANNAR, Nov. 27, 1861.

Commodore Tatuall, with three small steamers and one gunboat, attacked the federal fleet in Cockspur Roads yesterday. The engagement lasted one hour, and from forty to hity shots were exchanged. No person was injured on our side. The effect of the firing on the enemy unknown.

is unknown
Failing to draw the fleet under the guns of Fort Pulaski, Commodore Tain ill withdrew. There are now six large vousels inside of the bar, and one large frigate was towed over yesterday atternoon. The enemy has pickets all around Tybee Island, as far as King's landing.
It is reported that the Yankees have taken possession of Warsaw, and that they are preparing to attack Fort Pulaski.

MISSOURI AND THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

The Provisional Congress still holds its essions with closed doors, and we are unable to furnish our readers with any detail of the proceedings. The President sent in on Tuesday a message concerning the secession of Missouri. It was accompanied by an able letter from Governor Jackson, and also by an act dissolving the Union with the United States, and an act ratifying the constitution of the Provisional Government of the Confederate States; also, the convention between the Conmissioners of Missouri and the Commissioners of the Confederate States. Congress unanimously ratified the convention entered into between the Hen. R. M. T. Hunter, for this government, and the commissioners for Missouri. On yesterday we understand that C. ngress passed a law admitting Missouri into the confederacy. Congress refused to make any advances on, or the purchase of, the produce of planters, and much surprise was expressed that such a proposition should have been made. The action providing for the election of Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts by the General Assembly, instead of the people, was adopted by the Convention yesterday. A large portion of the session was devoted to a debate upon the constitutional provision for the election of Justices of the Peace, and some amendments were agreed to, but the subject was not disposed of. The case of Judke Pitts, of Accomac, is transferred to the General Assembly. It is currently reported that this official is entertaining federal officers at his residence on the Eastern shore, and he is consequently liable to a strong suspicion of disjoyalty to the South.

appointments of the districts of Clarksburg, Parkersburg, Greenbrier, Charleston and Wyandot.

The following order has been promulgated by one of our Generals in East Tennessee:

Ranquariers Rille Brigare, 1
Carl Lokout, Nov. 24, 1861. 5
Martial law having been proclaimed at this post on the 14th day of November, by order of Colonel 8. A. M. Wood, the officer then in command, many disaffected persons were arrested and placed in custody of the proper military authorities for trial. The larger portion of these have voluntarily taken the oath of allejance to the Confederate government and were released and returned to their homes. Those who were organized for active hostilities have, for the most part, been dispersed and driven beyond the limits of the State, thus effectually breaking up the conspiracy recently existing in this portion of the State to resist the authority of the Confederate States government, and thereby restoring peace and quiet through the country adjacent to this post.

The Commanding tenneral being satisfied, from the evidences of loyalty cupon the part of the people) new before him, that the necessity for the enforcement of martial law does not now exist, orders that the same be no longer in force. It is not the purpose of the Commanding General at this post to impose any restrictions, or enforce any law not required by steen necessity. Those persons who remain at home, submitting to the established laws of the country, will not be molested, whatever their previous political obtainous may have been, but those found in a ms against the government, ading or abetting its enemies, or in any way inciting rebellion, will be visited with all the rigor of military law.

PROMPT ACTION OF THE MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of Mississippi, on Thursday last, upon hearing that more troops were needed at Celumbus, in view of an apprehended attack from the enemy, immediately passed a bill authorizing the Governor to call out an optional number of volunteers for such time as their services may be needed, as an auxiliary force to our army up the river. A half million dollars were also voted to maintain these troops at the expense of the State white in the field.

THE LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

BAYON FO. OE. LA., Nov. 26, 1861.

In the Senate to-day a joint resolution was introduced by Mr. Moore, approving of the government recommendation to the banks to suspend specie payments, and to issue the Confederate States Treasury notes in the place of their bank notes. The resolution also provides for the submission of the question to the popular vote of the people of Louisiana.

Mr. Moore also introduced a bill authorizing the police juries of the several parishes to levy taxes for parish purposes.

A resolution was offered to inquire into the expediency of the assumption by the State of the collection and payment of the Confederate war tax.

In the House Mr. Tappan offered a resolution to adjourn the Legislature to New Oriens. After considerable discussion, the resolution was made the special order for tomorrow.

LATEST FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Charleston Couvier of this morning says that two Yankee gunboats had landed troops at Boekingham.
This is on the main land. Our forces made a forward movement. General Lee has issued orders that no one shaft leave Charleston without a permit. The greatest activity revails in army movements, and General Lee will dispute every inch of ground with a courage and desperation which will teach the Yankees a severe lesson.
They will not be allowed to gain a permanent foothold on the mainland of South Carolina.

SUCCESSES OF JEFF, THOMPSON.

They will have be also been a gain a permanent contained on the mainland of South Carolina.

Successes of Jeff. Thompson.

The Memphis Acadameke of the 221 of November, in speaking of Jeff. Thompson, says.—We learn from a gentleman who reached this city last night that Jeff. Thompson had captured at Price's landing the steamer Platte Valley, with a number of prisoners. One of the prisoners was recognized as a party who had visited Columbus recently. He had a complete plan of the fortifications surrousding that city. Most of them were Massouriess, and they were discharged on taking the eath of allegiance to the Confederate government. The officers were Northern men, and they were sent prisoners to Columbus.

CAPTURE OF A PRIVATEER.

The Galveston Criters had been received in Richmond. It gives an account of an action between the Confederate schooner Royal Yacht (privateer) and the federal steamer Santee. The Royal Yacht was surprised when lying outside of the harbor of Galveston. Finding it impossible to reach the harbor, she gave battle. The contest was a severe one, but the Yacht was finally overcome. No particulars had been received in regard to the humber kiled and wounded, as all on board the Yacht had been taken prisoners. The Santee was still lying outside the harbor. The authorities of tialveston had proposed an exchange of prisoners, but no response had been received from the Commander of the Santee.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS IN NEW YORK. ARRIVAL OF THE SEVENTY-FIFTH REGI-MENT. THEIR RECEPTION IN NEW YORK-MATERIAL AND

STRENGTH OF THE REGIMENT.

The Seventy-lifth regiment, New York State Volunteers, arrived in this city from Albany last evening on board of the steamer Knickerbocker. The steamer put in at the foot of Cortlandt street, where she landed her precious freight. It was intended that the troops, on arriving here, should be conveyed at once to Governor's Island, and a large number of persons, friends of the corps, re-paired thither at an early hour of the morning, anxiously awaiting their arrival. Tents were pitched upon the island for the accommodation of the men, and every-thing that could make them comfortable during their stay liberally provided. But the crowd were doomed to disappointment, and though the Seventy-fifth left Albany at one o'clock on Saturday, they did not breathe the air of New York until after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.
On landing at the foot of Cortlandt street the regiment at one o'clock on Saturday, they did not breathe the air of New York until after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

On landing at the foot of Cortlandt street the regiment was marched to Broadway, up Broadway to Thirtleth street, and down Thirtleth street to the stoamboat, which will convey them to Governor's Island for the space of four or five days, in order to make the men and officers remained on board of the beat all hight. The will remain on Governor's Island for the space of four or five days, in order to make the men as efficient in military tactics as possible previous to their final departure for the seat of war. The reception of the regiment, as they marched up Broadway last evening, was quite flattering and enthusiastic. In consequence of its being Sonday the streets were not so crowded as usual but the very sitent and comparatively deserted appearance of Broadway made the scene more interesting and impressive. Outside the different churches and hotels, however, large crowds had assembled, who gave vent to their enthusiastic feelings in hearty and long continued applause. The fine band, of sixteen pieces, accompanying the regiment, discoursed sweet music as they marched up Broadway, and the absolute stillness of the great thoroughfare sent the strains reverberating loudly through the vault of heaven. The bells from the different churches were ringing merrily, and the tramp of the soldiers mingled in pleasing accord with the chiming of the music sent forth, calling the Christians of New York to attend divine service. The marching and appearance of the Seventy-fifth was certainly highly creditable to them as well as to their officers. In their ranks they carried a magnificent stand of colors, presented to them by the ladies of Abany. As these colors were carried past the different points where were assembled a large crowd of personsicheer upon the brawny shoulders of the sons of New York State. As to the muscular ability and size of the men of the Seventy-fifth, there could scarcely be found a more li dence of that exertion. The following is a full list of the officers.—Colonel, John A. Dodge; Lieutenant Colonel, Robert B. Merritt; Major, Willoughby Babcock; Adjurant, Edward B. SEVENTY-EIGHTH REGIMENT CAMERON RIFLE HIGHLANDERS.

This regiment, now rapidly filling up, will soon leave for the field of action. They have changed their quarters o the Quarantine barracks, Staten Island. A fine body of athletic young men, composed almost entirely of farmers from the Northern part of this State, were mus-tered into this regiment some days ago, under Captain Trotter, formerly of the Seventh regiment. JACKSON ARTILLERY.

This regiment, which commenced to organize as a light artillery regiment, has changed its character to that of heavy artillery, by order of Governor Morgan. On Saturday torty-four recruits for the regiment were sworn into the service of the United States. The regiment will encamp at Camp Washington, Flushing, Long Island, The headquarters are at No. 236 Grand street, corner of THE MARCEY RIFLES.

A meeting of the officers of this regiment was held at

A meeting of the omeers of this regiment was held at headquarters, 545 Broadway, yesterday to perfect the organization. Three hendred men, we understand, are already enlisted, and will probably be soon transferred to quarters at Fort Schuyler, the new regiment being at-tached to the Irish Brigade, under Acting Brigadier Gene-ral Meagher. Colonel Kavanagh proceeds to Washington te-day, to report progress to the War Department.
